

K-LOVE is very beneficial to me and my friends. It encourages me and keeps me mindful of my responsibilities as a Christian to be kind, joyful, and respectful to those around me.

If K-LOVE didn't exist, some people in the community suffering from depression, anger, temptations, or apathy would lose the only radio station that ever gave them hope and direction.

The service provided by K-LOVE is in the public interest because of the good it brings out in those that listen to it. To stop the crime, the anger, and the hopelessness in our communities, we need more reminders of love and how to live; not just more radio stations providing music & news. Life is short, what we do should be meaningful, not just mainstream. Please help build up our communities.

Thanks,
Troy Soares
